

Quality Improvement Across the Continuum Conference: Evaluation Results

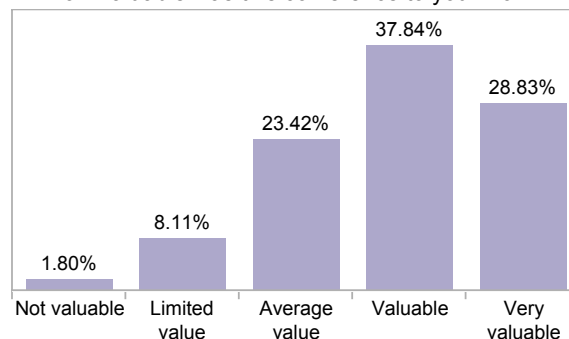

The 2016 long-term services and supports quality conference attracted more than 450 people from nursing homes and HCBS providers.

What overall rating do you give the conference?

How valuable was this conference to your work?

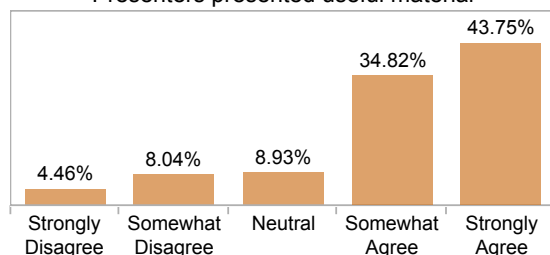

DHS Staff Involvement

Community Supports Administration	10
Continuing Care for Older Adults Administration	17

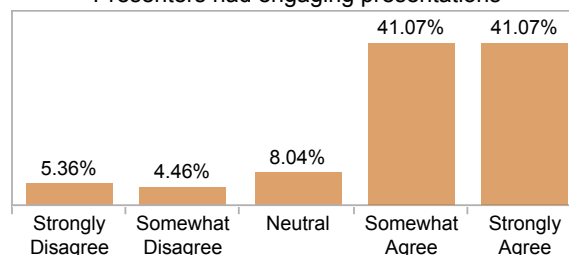

Top Ten Breakout Sessions by Attendance

Becoming a Person-Centered Organization: Residential Services, Inc	48
Workforce Panel	54
Mental Health Panel	55
Infection Prevention and Control in Long-Term Care: Senior Providers Resource	58
Quality Improvement by KN @ Home: Knute Nelson	58
Preventing Falls and Decline in Function: Senior Providers Resource	65
Transforming Organizations Using Person Centered Practices: Mains'l	72
Quality Improvement 101: DHS	82
D.A.T.A - Do As Time Allows: Elim Care & Empira	83
Communication Challenges Overcoming the Barriers to Improve Quality: Essentia Health	90

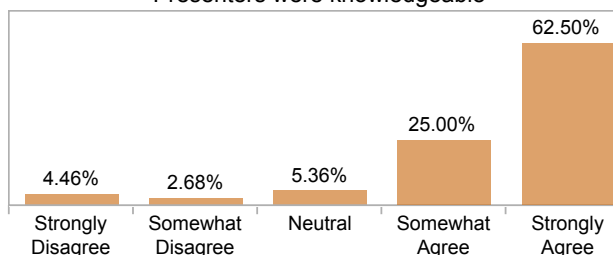

Presenters presented useful material

Presenters had engaging presentations

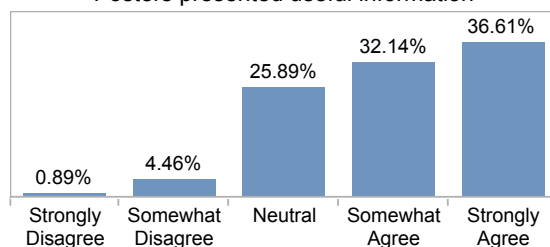

Presenters were knowledgeable

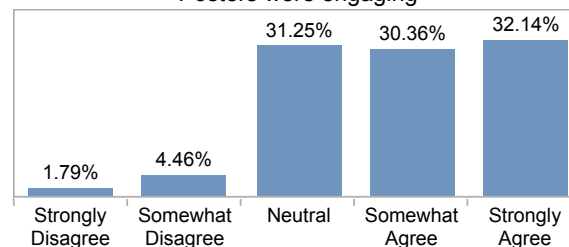

30 organizations presented during breakout sessions | 22 organizations presented during the poster session

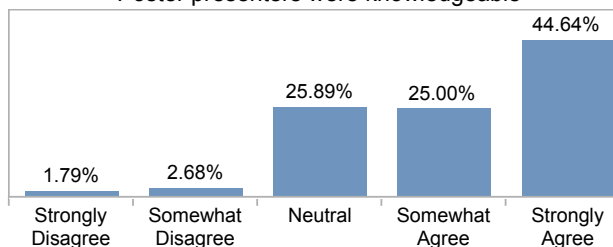

Posters presented useful information

Posters were engaging

Poster presenters were knowledgeable

N=112